CHILDMINDING Newsletter

Welcome to this weeks Childminding newsletter, we hope you are all enjoying this good weather we are having. With summer approaching and as preparation for September begins a reminder that our dedicated CMDO is available to meet one to one in the DOC offices or through MS teams to offer support, guidance or information on all areas of your childminding service.

Upcoming events for childminders

Childminder meet up

FCCC invites you to a childminder meet up for a coffee and a chat. Come along and meet other childminders in Fingal. Our Childminding Development Officer will be there to answer any questions you may have.
Tuesday 15th July 6.30-7.30pm

Leanaí agus an Teaghlach
Child and Family Agency

Well done to all the childminders that received their certificates last week in Paediatric First Aid with FCCC. The HSE have a dedicated webpage full of information, tips and guidance on First Aid that you may find beneficial for your childminding service. To find out more Click here

Tusla Early Years Inspectorate now has a dedicated page for childminding Click here to view, here you will find information on the implementation of childminding regulation in Ireland. The information available on the page will expand and develop over the coming months

My Little Library

Do you visit the library with the children you care for? The library can be an exciting place to visit within the community and did you know that children who are transitioning from preschool to primary school can collect a free My Little Library Book Bag from their local library. For more information you can scan the QR code below.
